CONTROVERSY ON THE JOURNEY

Deuteronomy 29-30; Deuteronomy 29:9-11

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE TEACH ABOUT _____?

Micah 6:8

"Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me, I lift my lamp beside the golden door!"
Emma Lazarus

"One position promotes honoring God through obeying the law, focusing on the responsibility of the government to provide for the security of its people. A second position focuses on our responsibility to care for the needy, particularly the alien and the stranger. The third position assumes this is an amoral political and economic issue that the church is wise to stay clear of."
Steve Cable

"We have the right to expect the government to fulfill its divinely ordained mandate to punish those who break the laws and reward those who do not (Romans 13). We also have a divine mandate to act redemptively and compassionately toward those who are in need."
Dr. Richard Land

TO ACT JUSTLY: THE CASE FOR _____ AND _____

Romans 13:1-7; 1 Peter 2:13-14; Titus 3:1; Acts 5:29

"What is the biblical solution to illegal immigration. Simple...don't do it; obey the laws....If it is your conviction that an immigration law is unjust, do everything that is legally within your power to get the law changed: pray, petition, vote, peacefully protest, etc. As Christians, we should be the first to seek to change any law that is unjust. At the same time, we are also to demonstrate our submission to God by obeying the government He has placed in authority over us."
S. Michael Houdman

TO LOVE MERCY: THE CASE FOR _____

“Another important consideration is whether Christ’s directive to show compassion to the needy should be our primary concern in establishing and enforcing immigration policy. Those who promote this case point to two primary principles in the Scriptures: 1. Treat the alien in our midst with fairness, remembering that we too are aliens. 2. Minister to the least of these as unto Jesus Himself.” Steve Cable

Matthew 25:40

“Welcoming the stranger (the ‘immigrant’, we could say today) is the most repeated commandment in Hebrew Scriptures, with the exception of the imperative to worship only the one God. And the love of neighbor (especially the more vulnerable neighbor) is doubtlessly the New Testament’s constant command.”

Orlando O. Espin
