THANKSGIVING IN THE WILDERNESS

"When you arise in the morning give thanks for the food and for the joy of living. If you see no reason for giving thanks, the fault lies only in yourself."

Chief Tecumseh

"When eating fruit, remember the one who planted the tree."

Vietnamese Proverb

"This a wonderful day. I've never seen this one before."

Maya Angelou

"Who does not thank for little will not thank for much."

Estonian Proverb

"What separates privilege from entitlement is gratitude."

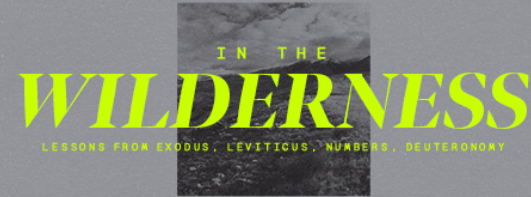

Brené Brown

EXODUS 35:10, 20-22, 25-29

1 PETER 4:10

“Generous giving can only come from a new heart - a heart transformed by the grace of God. Generosity is a form of gratitude, and gratitude is the heart’s response to grace. We see this in the Israelites. They were so grateful for what God had done for them - delivering them from Egypt, sparing them from the angel of death, and giving them his holy law - that they wanted to do something for him in return. What opened their hearts to give was God’s saving grace.”
