Fill in the blanks: sympathy, humility, generosity, opportunity, preparation, invitation, condemnation

This Study Guide provides a daily reading plan to read through the Gospel of Luke on your own during the week. The following questions are provided for your personal reflection and application and for you to discuss with your family, friends, and Life Group. While the sermons will not be able to cover every passage in Luke, the Study Guide and daily readings will. If you are missing any Study Guides, they are available at the Connect Center or online with the sermon archives each week.

OPEN UP

Did you ever skip school or make up an excuse to get out of going? What happened?

DAY 1: READ LUKE 14:1-14

How does Jesus' view of honor (vv. 7-11) differ from that held by others at the meal?

What does this passage teach you about the differences between kingdom values and social values?

In verse 7 Jesus observes subtle social behavior; what does that tell you about his ability to observe your behavior?

How do things like customs and status get in the way of loving others in your family? Church? Work place? Community?

DAY 2: READ LUKE 14:15-24

What character in this parable can you most identify with?

What do you think the "great banquet" (v. 16) represents?

How would you feel as one of “the poor, the crippled, the blind and the lame” (v. 21) brought to the great banquet?

On a scale of 1 (not hungry) to 10 (starving), how would you describe your appetite right now for the things of God?

DAY 3: READ LUKE 14:25-35

In verse 26, what does Jesus mean when he uses the word “hate” in reference to one’s family and life?

What does the salt analogy emphasize about discipleship?

Based on this passage, what price must a person be willing to pay to be a disciple of Christ?

What price have you had to pay to follow Christ? How hard or easy has this been?

THIS WEEK’S CHALLENGE

This week, seek out an opportunity to serve someone in your life, whether they be a member of your family, friend group, or greater community. While spur of the moment acts of service are of great value, too, try to intentionally plan an act of service that places someone else’s needs above your own. Some ideas include: bringing a meal, offering to wash their car, or offering to run an errand for them.

Reflect afterwards on how it made you feel to put another before yourself. Awkward? Revitalizing? Encouraging? Pray and ask God to help you look for opportunities to serve others in your everyday life.
