ANYTHING

_____ ME

REMIND YOUR SOUL:

- He forgives all my sins.
- He heals all my diseases.
- He redeems my life from the pit and crowns me with love and compassion.
- He satisfies my desires with good things.
- He removes my sins as far as the east is from the west.
- He doesn't treat me as my sins deserve.
- He has compassion on me like a good father.
- He remembers me.

REFLECT | DISCUSS | PRACTICE

1. REFLECT: How did God specifically speak to you through the Bible passages and sermon?
2. DISCUSS: Read Psalm 103:1-3, 8-12. How have you experienced the difference between hiding sin and confessing it? What changes in your relationship with God when you practice confession regularly?
3. DISCUSS: Read Psalm 103:4-5. Looking back, can you think of a moment where you were in a “pit” and God used even your failures, mistakes, or sins for His glory?
4. DISCUSS: Read Psalm 103:11, 13. Our experience with our earthly fathers, whether wonderful, complicated, or absent, can shape how we view God as Father. How has your own father shaped your view of God? And how have you experienced God showing Himself as the perfect Father who loves you unconditionally?
5. DISCUSS: Read Psalm 103:14-18. When you read that God knows you completely and still chooses to love you forever, what does that change about the way you see yourself? How can you remind your soul that God remembers and loves you “from everlasting to everlasting?”
6. PRACTICE: Keep this list of things that are always true about God handy to read and reflect on each morning and evening this week. Practice reminding your soul to praise the Lord for who He is and what will never change about Him. Extra challenge: Memorize the “Remind Your Soul” list or all of Psalm 103.
