DIDN'T SEE THAT COMING

July 26, 2026 / Pastor Haley Tyler

GOD FORMS HIS PEOPLE THROUGH SEASONS OF EXILE, WAITING, AND HARDSHIP.

Jeremiah 29:4-9

WAIT FAITHFULLY

Jeremiah 29:10-11

WAIT DEPENDENTLY

Jeremiah 29:13-14

WAIT CONFIDENTLY

How might God be encouraging you this morning as you consider the season He has you in?

REFLECT | DISCUSS | PRACTICE

1. REFLECT: How did you sense God speaking to you through the sermon and Bible verses?
2. DISCUSS: Spend time reading Jeremiah 29:4-14 again. What are some attributes you can learn about God's heart as you read His words through Jeremiah?
3. DISCUSS: How would you have felt receiving this letter as an Israelite in exile?
4. DISCUSS: The main point of the morning was that "God forms His people through seasons of exile, waiting, and hardship". How have you experienced spiritual formation, becoming more like Christ, in tougher seasons?
5. DISCUSS: Of the 3 encouragements that Haley mentions from Jeremiah 29, which one sticks out to you the most when you consider your story that God is writing in your life? What would it practically look like to say yes to that encouragement this week?
6. Prayer Challenge: Get into groups of two, and share your answer to question #4. Use this time to personally share where you might be as you consider the topic of exile, waiting, or trial. Then, pray over one another that God will help them to wait faithfully, wait dependently, or wait confidently in His promised presence with whatever circumstance they are in.
